

UWHC RISK MANAGEMENT EDUCATION ON-LINE PROGRAM POST-QUESTIONS / EVALUATION

ACTIVITY: Care of the Bariatric Patient

OBJECTIVES: 1) Discuss the evaluation and management of patients considering bariatric surgery. 2) Describe perioperative and long term concerns of the bariatric surgery patient. 3) Review important considerations for the bariatric patient in the healthcare setting.

SPEAKERS: Michael Garren, MD; Steve Heuer, PA and Tami Schiltz, MS

Post-Program Questions:
1) The number one indication within the next five years for liver transplantation will be fatty liver disease.	True <input type="checkbox"/> False <input type="checkbox"/>
2) What impacts the well-being of the morbidly obese patients? a. <input type="checkbox"/> Bias and discrimination – culture that values thinness b. <input type="checkbox"/> Societies belief that obesity is not a disease c. <input type="checkbox"/> Patients internalize negative attitudes resulting in low self-esteem/ eating more d. <input type="checkbox"/> Patients are reluctant to seek medical care / put off preventive health services e. <input type="checkbox"/> More frequent cancelled or delays in scheduling appointment f. <input type="checkbox"/> Experience less time spent with the physician (less intervention, discussion) g. <input type="checkbox"/> All of the above
3) Being overweight is a product of many factors.	True <input type="checkbox"/> False <input type="checkbox"/>
4) What can be done to improve the care and our interactions with morbidly obese patients? a. <input type="checkbox"/> Demand weight tolerance in our health care settings b. <input type="checkbox"/> Use safe and appropriate equipment c. <input type="checkbox"/> Establish guidelines for weighing obese patients d. <input type="checkbox"/> Document BMI as a vital sign e. <input type="checkbox"/> Encourage routine and preventive care f. <input type="checkbox"/> Avoid making remarks about size g. <input type="checkbox"/> Focus on health and the role weight plays in it h. <input type="checkbox"/> All of the above
5) Nonsurgical treatments for those suffering from morbid obesity produce a failure rate near 100%.	True <input type="checkbox"/> False <input type="checkbox"/>

Do you anticipate changes in your practice as a result of the materials presented? Yes  No

Comments and topics you recommend be included in future activities? _____

PRINT NAME: _____ DATE: _____

Automatically submit this form by clicking here ↔
 or fax to 662-4476